On Demand Trip Kickoff!

On Demand Weekend Adventures have officially begun. Since our last newsletter, several of our Sequoia kids joined Director Lux and Associate Director Artrice on a Bayou Boys Trip. We started off exploring Avery Island with alligators and visiting the the Tabasco factory for samples of tabasco infused treats. We added a fishing trip, a traditional low country boil, seafood buffet, ,and exploring Frenchman and Bourbon streets in New Orleans. We also went on a Baton Rouge River Walk and visited the National WWII Museum.

These on demand trips are crafted for groups of 2+ and can be day, weekend, or long weekend excursions. They are an excellent way to celebrate a birthday, special event, or just to have a reunion with camp friends and staff. For more details, please reach out to us at office@camp-sequoia.com or check out our website for ideas.

Magical Activity Update

You've seen Mystery Adventure and Magic: The Gathering as a special activities at camp. Now imagine combining these two for 2024. Camp Sequoia (see photo below), has acquired the unsorted stock of MTG cards from a shop that was closing. We currently have roughly 150,000 MTG cards to sort and use to build our new MTG Major. Check out all of the boxes of cards below. Imagine what could be in there. Is the MTG Major in your future? What will Sequoia come up with next, AirDnD? In any event, there is a great deal of interest in a Sequoia gaming weekend catering to the MTG, D&D, Pokémon and Yu gi oh! players in our community. Stay tuned for details!

Hawaii Update

Aloha to our older campers! Our planning for our 2024 Hawaii Adventure is in the works. We are excited to confirm some highlights including Pearl Harbor, Ranger Jay and insight into traditional Hawaiian culture. We also have a fishing trip, the Polynesian Cultural Center and some amazing beaches on the itinerary. Please reach out to Artrice for more details and special early pricing.
